Pursuant to Article 27 of the Statute of the Serbian National Internet Domain Registry Foundation, the Conference of Co-founders, in regular session on 13/ 12/ 2014, adopted the following

DECISION ON AMENDMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTS TO THE GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR THE REGISTRATION OF NATIONAL INTERNET DOMAIN NAMES

I A new paragraph 2 shall be added to Article 9, and the previous paragraph 2 shall become paragraph 3. The added paragraph shall read:

The registrant gives his or her explicit prior consent and confirmation that he or she knows that he or she shall lose the right to cancel the contract when the accredited registrar completes the registration of the domain name with RNIDS, that is when RNIDS enters the domain name in the national Internet domain registry.

Article 13, paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be amended and shall now read:

RNIDS shall allow the relevant authorities, other entities and agencies access to information from the national Internet domain registry collected by RNIDS in accordance with these General Terms and Conditions, including information for which protection from public exposure via the WHOIS service has been activated, if they have the right to access this information under the applicable regulations of the Republic of Serbia.

Information required for the initiation and conduct of court proceedings or alternative dispute resolution proceedings connected with a domain name, including information for which protection from public exposure via the WHOIS service has been activated, shall be supplied by RNIDS on official request by the relevant court or alternative dispute resolution body.

II These amendments and supplements shall enter into force 15 days after the day of their publication on the RNIDS website.
